

The pulsewidth on all Monaco lasers will now be specified at <350 fs – an improvement of 50 ps over the original specification. This new spec is a result of continuous improvements in manufacturing attributed to Coherent HASS testing protocols.